

O Church of God

537

1. O church of God, built on a firm foun - da - tion,
 2. We hear the Word, in song and ser - mon spo - ken,
 3. O Spir - it, feed us with Your bread from heav - en,
 4. We feel Your peace, Your arms of Love en - fold - ing,

Stand - ing se - cure a - mid the storms of life,
 In si - lent prayer, we turn to God to - day;
 We drink Your liv - ing wa - ter and are free;
 We lift our hearts in praise and grat - i - tude.

Where all may come to learn of true sal - va - tion
 Our hum - ble hearts re - ceive the bless - ed to - ken
 And ev - ery les - son that Your love has giv - en,
 We, from this hour, a glimpse of heaven be - hold - ing,

And find re - lease from dis - cord, pain, and strife.
 Of Truth that guides us in the up - ward way.
 Oh, may we learn it with hu - mil - i - ty.
 Go for - ward with our joy and strength re - newed.

Exodus 16:4, 15; 17:6 / Nehemiah 9:15 / Psalms 78:16, 21 / John 6:33, 58. The words of this hymn are from a poem entitled "Service in The Mother Church," first published in the October 8, 1955 issue of the Christian Science Sentinel.

WORDS: Ruby Nilson, alt.
 MUSIC: William J. Reynolds

MORA PROCTOR
 11.10.11.10.

Words © 1955, ren. 1983 The Christian Science Board of Directors
 Words alt. © 2017 The Christian Science Board of Directors
 Music © 1975 Van Ness Press, Inc. (admin. Music Services)